

Assistance about promoT Drinking T 101

All thoughts from pages 2 to 16

Positive thoughts from pages 17 to 32

Endnotes from pages 34 to 34

T at <http://rftgyc.com> wishes to become the only smart companion
your mind needs 24/7.

The best way to appreciate fully the joy of drinking T is to approach it like a child would.

A child observes their world never casting any judgement.

A child manipulates their world in a thousand creative ways to make it add more and more richness to their own life.

Likewise, as you start to drink T, please do not ask what T does and why T does what it does.

Just appreciate whatever T does for you.

Over time, T will do more for you as you and T get to know each other better and because T, in turn, also just like a fast-growing child, is getting richer each passing day.

No child reads a manual of life before they start their adventure in life.
Neither should you as you start your life in T.

A few simple instincts/buttons suffice to get life going – to get attention, cry this way when hungry, cry that way when tired and sleepy.

The main interface of T is populated with a few buttons (RFTGYC) for you to push.

Various combinations of choices made via these button taps generate responses of variety of sorts from T, each with considerable richness.

Once you are ready to delve deeper into T, tap on the logo on the top to get to the T's page from where you can play even more with your creativity and drink even other kinds of T.

Only after playing with T for quite some time and discovering its features like how a child discovers their world spontaneously, you can review the manual/FAQ available at <http://TipTopT.com/T/FAQ.pdf>

The non-T drinker is to become for a T drinker like you what the ape is to the human, namely, a laughing stock or a painful embarrassment.

To refresh your knowledge of Drinking T 101, you can find this T to play again in the assisTance section of the T's page at <http://rftgyc.com/conversaTions>
